PURPOSE

Our organization exists to improve the quality of institutional training in the United States Army with special emphasis on the Reserve Components

The Army School System

- The Army School System embodies the following characteristics:
  - Tri-component partnership.
  - Efficient use of facilities, equipment, personnel, and time.
  - Fully integrated system that uses the Army Training Requirements and Resources System (ATRRS).
  - Use of The Army Training System (TATS) Courseware.
  - Active Component Title XI in support of Reserve Component (RC).
- TASS Structure:
  - 32 TRADOC Proponent Schools
  - 138 Reserve Component TASS Battalions
  - 354 Active Component Title XI Soldiers
  - 8,082 Reserve Component Instructors

Purpose of Title XI Program

- Title XI is a congressionally mandated program to provide AC support to the RC for training and education.
  - We have TXI assigned at Centers, Proponent Schools and RC TASS BNs
- Intent is to increase readiness of the RC and to enhance overall effectiveness of the Army.
- TRADOC Title XIs have been principally engaged in: TASS battalion accreditation, instructor certification, and courseware development and implementation.

The Role of The Army School System Directorate (TASSD)

- Analyze, monitor, and execute the TRADOC accreditation program for Reserve Component TASS training institutions.
- Resolves TASS accreditation and implementation issues and forward to appropriate agencies.
- Serves as subject matter expert (SME) to TRADOC CG on TASS related matters.
- Manages training ammunition requisitions in support of Reserve Component schools.
- Manages TRADOC Title XI program; provides program and budget input for TRADOC Title XI support.
